Your Entertainment Just Got An Upgrade.

Disconnect from work while incorporating a message.

Our shows can leave a personalized message for your employees, by writing it into the fun.

What makes us different?

We offer a unique blend of comedy, magic and hypnosis. We pair this to use for employee assemblies, product/service promotions, and general entertainment for your business's next event.

Comedy

Buzz has been a comedian for over a decade, working on using humor in the workplace to elevate the mood, and he brings that to the stage, and shows how a good sense of humor can lead to a happier work/life balance.

Magic

Showing that lying can be fun and beneficial, Buzz not only entertains but talks about how misdirection, and a little preparation can take you to new places.

Hypnosis

We're pretty sure he didn't sell his soul for this feat, but we can't be sure. Okay we can, Buzz uses his mastery of hypnosis and psychology to not only put on an incredible show, but also to show how powerful the mind is when it's given the right circumstances.

We're not as cheap as a solo act…but we're not a one trick pony.

Could you find a comedian, magician, or hypnotist cheaper? Absolutely! Why sacrifice? When you can have all three for a clear, concise, and well rounded price and performance.

Business Deserves Big Entertainment.

You're people work hard for you, and without them what do you have? Show them how much you care by getting something they can interact, personalize, and remember for the rest of their lives.

Leave your workers wowed.

They'll be laughing so hard they won't even notice that they're being shown something that's truly useful, not that laughter isn't we're just here to help your bottom line too. None of us go into business to throw money away, and we don't expect you to. That's why were here.

Be the envy!

Everyone knows you're the place to work for, now make them jealous that they didn't pick up an application.
